OUR WORK

Grant writing that understands public education from the inside

Springboard Funding Group is a Minnesota-based grant consulting firm dedicated to securing funding for the programs, students, and schools that need it most. We specialize in public education grant writing — from small foundation awards to complex, multi-year state and federal grants — with a consistent focus on educational equity, college and career readiness, and expanding access for historically underserved students in Minnesota public schools.

What sets Springboard apart is not just grant writing expertise. Our founder brings two decades of K-12 curriculum coordination experience, which means every proposal is grounded in real program logic, real student outcome data, and real district context. We don't translate what clients tell us. We already speak the language.

Near-misses with high scores reflect competitive market conditions, not proposal quality. The OHE application competed in the largest candidate pool in that program's history. The AP/IB/STEM application scored 94/100 — a management decision redirected the award.
